

Can photovoltaic solar panels be installed in Hong Kong?

"Due to the high land price in Hong Kong, it is impossible to mount photovoltaic solar panels on the ground as in mainland China," says Professor Yang Hong-xing from the Department of Building Environment and Energy Engineering of PolyU, who has been conducting research on renewable energy applications for more than 30 years.

What are the different types of photovoltaic systems in Hong Kong?

Photovoltaic systems in Hong Kong can be classified into two main types - stand-alone systems and grid-connected systems. These can further be divided into ordinary photovoltaic systems and building-integrated photovoltaic (BIPV) systems.

When did BIPV start in Hong Kong?

"Since coming on board at PolyU in 1995, I began to develop experimental systems on solar photovoltaic integration in buildings," says Professor Yang, who set up Hong Kong's first BIPV experimental system on the PolyU campus in 1999.

What is a building-integrated photovoltaic (BIPV) system?

These can further be divided into ordinary photovoltaic systems and building-integrated photovoltaic (BIPV) systems. For BIPV systems, the photovoltaic modules are integrated into the building envelope as part of the building structure.

Does EMSD conduct surveys on equipment suppliers & installation contractors in Hong Kong?

175.5(i) EMSD has conducted surveys on the equipment suppliers and installation contractors of solar PV systems and associated equipment in Hong Kong. According to the response received, information o

What is solar photovoltaic scheme?

The Scheme is well received by the industry and citizens, and significantly cultivates the development of building integrated solar photovoltaic applications. Solar Photovoltaic panels are deployed on the roof of the Lee Shau Kee Building of PolyU.
